DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-5, drawn to a masonry tuck point tool, classified in class 15, subclass 105.5.
 - II. Claim 6, drawn to a method of striking a mortar joint, classified in class 425, subclass 458.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process such as not requiring rotating the selected tuck blade approximately 180 degrees away from remaining tuck blades.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. During a telephone conversation with Mr. Carl Crowell on September 14, 2004 a provisional election was made without traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 1-5. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claim 6 is withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The recitation in claim 5 that the remaining tuck blades are of distinct lengths is in direct contradiction to that recited back in claim 1 which recites that the tuck blades have similar blade lengths.

Drawings

6. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: Numeral 202 in Fig. 2.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Blanchard '387.

Blanchard '387 discloses a masonry tuck point tool in Fig. 1 characterized as a “double pointer”, comprising a selected tuck blade and at least one remaining tuck blade pivotally attached at a first end 14 (p. 2, lines 31-33), said selected tuck blade and each of said remaining tuck blades having a distinct blade width (p. 2, lines 38-40) and similar blade lengths, wherein said selected tuck blade is pivoted approximately 180 degrees away (Fig. 1) from said remaining tuck blades thereby allowing said remaining tuck blades to be used as a handle (p. 2, lines 36-38) at said first end while said selected tuck blade is utilized for striking a masonry joint with a second end opposite said first end of said remaining tuck blades.

It is suggested to change the recitation “said remaining tuck blades” to –said at least one remaining tuck blade—for consistency and clarity throughout the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claims 2 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blanchard '387.

As for the tuck blades being made from rigid spring steel, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to utilize this material in order to provide for durability as well as some flexibility to avoid breaking the tool.

As for the tuck blades being made from hard plastic, one skilled in the art would find it obvious to utilize this material in order to provide for durability and since such material is widely available on the market.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents to Cross and Marchbanks are relevant to various masonry tools.
